

Food Security Act – Treatment

SCHEDULED HARVESTING (acre)

Definition

Schedule planting and harvesting operations during the low rainfall period.

Purpose

To reduce erosion in cleared fields between harvest operations and reestablishment of a crop.

Conditions Where Practice Applies

On cropland used to grow sugarcane located in areas with definite high and low rainfall periods.

SPECIFICATIONS

Crops will be harvested and planted between the following dates:

Field Office	Rainfall Distribution	Low Rainfall Period
		Harvest Date	Planting Date
Hilo	East, North, South	05/01	10/15
Papaaloa	North, Hamakua	04/01	09/15
Pahala	South, Ka' u Dist.	04/01	11/01
Maui	Lahaina, Puukoli	01/15	10/15
Maui	Wailuku, Waikapu	05/01	10/15
Maui	Neck & West peninsula	04/15	10/15
Maui	Pauwela	05/01	10/15
Honolulu	Leeward & Windward	04/01	10/15
Lihue	Anahola	05/15	09/15
Lihue	Hanalei	05/01	10/15
Lihue	Kapaa	05/15	10/15
Lihue	Southwest part Waimea	04/15	10/01
Lihue	Brydeswood area	05/01	09/15
Lihue	Lihue area District	04/01	09/15

* - Planting can go into the rainy period where precision tillage and volunteer cover crops are used. Rows are spaced 5 feet apart and 6 inches of soil is disturbed during the planting operation.